DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 3-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hamalainen et al. (Hamalainen), US Patent No. 5,802,465.

Regarding claims 3 –36, Hamalainen discloses a method for operating a CDMA user device comprising:

A method for operating a CDMA user device comprising:

establishing a communication session with at least one base station, the communication session comprising a plurality of layers including a physical layer (col. ;

negotiating a service configuration with the at least one base station, the user device receiving at least one assigned subchannel from the at least one base station (col. 10,line 51 to col. 11,line 9);

establishing a physical layer connection with the at least one base station on the at least one assigned subchannel, the physical layer connection corresponding to the physical layer (col. 13,line 51 to col. 15,line 23); releasing the at least one assigned subchannel so that the physical layer connection is terminated; and maintaining a state
